AUDITIONS FOR NEW STUDENTS

Admission to the School of American Ballet is by audition only. Applicants must register in advance of specified audition dates by registering online at www.sab.org/wtadmissions.

Auditions for girls and boys aged 6** to 10 are held each spring; auditions for students 11 to 18-years-old are held in September. A copy of the applicant's birth certificate must be shown at the time of the audition. Visit www.sab.org for specific audition dates.

An application fee of $35 is payable at the audition.

Weekly Auditions

Auditions for applicants 14 to 18 years old are also held weekly at SAB by appointment throughout the school year and may be arranged by contacting the Registrar. New students are admitted if there is room in the classes for which they qualify.

An application fee of $35 is payable at the audition.

ATTIRE FOR AUDITIONS

Applicants 6** to 10 years old: Ballet practice clothes, swim-suit, or t-shirt and shorts. (Ballet slippers are not required.)

Applicants 11 to 18 years old: Ballet practice clothes. Ballet slippers are required for girls and boys. Girls 12-18 should also bring pointe shoes.

INTERNATIONAL APPLICATIONS

International students (those living outside the continental U.S.) must audition in person for the Winter Term. SAB will accept a DVD or videotape in lieu of an audition only for application to the Summer Course for students ages 12 to 18. Any international student who attends Summer Course may apply at that time for entrance to the upcoming Winter Term.

**To enroll in the 2010-2011 Winter Term, a child must be at least 6-years-old by September 1, 2010.

All girls must wear pink tights and pink ballet slippers. Leotards may be in any style but may not be velvet. The leotard colors listed are stocked by Capezio, Freed, and Danskin.

* Indicates one-hour classes.

+ Indicates two-hour classes. All other classes are 1½ hours.
